Flagler Museum Announces 2017 / 2018 Season Programs

PALM BEACH, FL - The Flagler Museum continues to provide the community with unique experiences and learning opportunities during the 2017/2018 Season. Please include the following events and dates in your calendars.

Fall Exhibition:

Knights of the Air: Aviator Heroes of World War I

October 17 – December 31, 2017

Included with Museum admission

The first museum exhibit devoted to the image of the World War I pilot-hero, Knights of the Air honors the daredevil pilots who risked everything for the cause at the dawn of aviation. Imbued with a sense of adventure and fierce patriotism, aviators became the face of the War efforts back home. Works of art, souvenirs, postcards, and newspapers celebrated their valiant efforts. After the War, the romance of flight was embodied in new types of daring aviators, such as barnstorming aerial acrobats, air mail pilots, and bootleggers. Popular pulp magazines such as George Bruce's Squadron and Hollywood films like Wings (1927) capitalized on the appeal of the brave World War I aviator, inspiring many future pilots who would serve America in commercial aviation and future military conflicts.

Organized by the Flagler Museum in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of America's entry into World War I in 1917, Knights of the Air features works of art, artifacts, and printed materials on loan from the private collection of Jean S. and Frederic A. Sharf, and other private and public collections.

Guided exhibition tours will be offered Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. beginning October 25. The Flagler Museum will offer free admission to active duty, reserve, and retired U.S. Military each Wednesday for the duration of the exhibition (proper identification required).

On November 11, 2017, the Flagler Museum invites all visitors to participate in a day full of activities that honor and pay homage to our Veterans. On Veterans Day, enjoy special lectures and tours, Honor Guard presentations, and children's activities. As part of the festivities, Exhibition curator Janel Trull will present an illustrated lecture about Knights of the Air at 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. The day-long Veterans Day program is included with admission.

The Fall Exhibition is sponsored by the Eliasberg Family Foundation, Templeton & Company, the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs. Generous in-kind support provided by Jean S. and Frederic A. Sharf.

Special Holiday Lecture:

Christmas on the Homefront: Celebrating the Holiday During Wartime

by Dr. Penne Restad

Sunday, December 3, 2017, 2:00 p.m.

Free for Members at the Sustaining level and above

$10 for Individual, Family and Life Members

$28 for non-members; includes Museum admission and Tree Lighting festivities

By the time the United States entered World War I in 1917, Christmas had been established as a national holiday with traditions based on spirituality, community, and commerce. As loved ones were sent to fight overseas, these traditions evolved to reflect the sentiments of a nation at war. Join historian and author, Dr. Penne Restad, as she explores how Americans at home and soldiers abroad observed Christmas during the Great War.

The Holiday Lecture is sponsored by BMO Private Bank, the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, Hilton West Palm Beach, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.

Christmas Tree Lighting

Sunday, December 3, 2017, 3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Free with Museum admission

The 16-foot-tall Grand Hall Christmas tree, with its historically accurate trimmings, is the center of Whitehall's holiday celebrations. The Tree Lighting festivities include holiday music played on Whitehall's original 1,249-pipe Odell organ and the 1902 Steinway art-case grand piano. This annual performance is the only opportunity visitors have to hear both of Whitehall's majestic instruments. Special choir performances, refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus complete the afternoon's activities. The event culminates with Henry Flagler's youngest descendants lighting the Grand Hall Christmas tree. Each visitor will receive a box of Animal Crackers, a treat invented in the Gilded Age. The iconic circus box with a string was originally designed as a Christmas Tree ornament.

The Christmas Tree Lighting is sponsored by the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.

Holiday Evening Tours

December 19 through 23: Tours begin at 6:50 p.m., 7:05 p.m., 7:15 p.m. and 7:25 p.m.

Holiday Evening Tour Reception will begin at 6:30 p.m.

$25 for adults

$15 for children ages 17 and under

Advance purchase required

During this beloved annual event, families tour Whitehall after hours and discover the origins of American Christmas traditions. Guests will have a rare opportunity to see Whitehall by the glow of the original 1902 light fixtures. Every visitor will receive a traditional Christmas cracker following the tour. A choral group will sing carols and holiday refreshments will be served. The Museum Store will remain open for holiday shopping.

Holiday Evening Tours are sponsored by the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.

Flagler Museum Music Series

Winter Exhibition:

Masterfully Human: The Art of Gaugengigl

January 23 - April 29, 2018

Free with Museum admission

Nostalgic images of a refined past will be on display at the Flagler Museum this winter.

Masterfully Human surveys the work of Boston School painter and printmaker Ignaz Marcel Gaugengigl (1855-1932), the first museum exhibition devoted to this Gilded Age artist.

Gaugengigl's intimate and evocative depictions of everyday life, often set in revolutionary-era France, convey timeless themes such as honor, friendship, love, and beauty. In addition to his popular genre subjects, the exhibition will present Gaugengigl's work in landscape, portraiture, illustration, and design.

Organized by the Flagler Museum, Masterfully Human will include more than 80 works on loan from major private and public collections from across the United States. An illustrated catalogue will accompany the exhibition. Guided exhibition tours will be offered Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. beginning January 31.

Exhibition Lecture Series

Free for Members at the Sustaining level and above

$10 for Individual, Family and Life Members

$28 per lecture for non-members

Space is limited, advanced purchase is required

Masterfully Human: The Art of Gaugengigl

Tracy Kamerer, Chief Curator, Flagler Museum
3:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 15, 2018

Exhibition curator Tracy Kamerer will discuss the career of Ignaz Gaugengigl in this illustrated lecture, examining his work within the contexts of the etching revival, American art, French history, and Gilded Age taste.

The Bostonians: Art and Artists in Boston, 1870-1930

Dr. Erica E. Hirshler, Croll Senior Curator of American Paintings, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston
3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 1, 2018

Ignaz Gaugengigl, known for both his fine paintings and fine manner, was an important member of Boston's art circles; this illustrated lecture will explore painting in Boston through the work of William Morris Hunt, John La Farge, John Singer Sargent, Childe Hassam, Edmund Tarbell, and other contributors to the city's vibrant artistic scene.

The Winter Exhibition is sponsored by Northern Trust, The Palm Beach Post, VISIT FLORIDA, the Mosaic Foundation (R. & P. Heydon), the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, the Hilton West Palm Beach, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs. Generous in-kind support provided by Dr. Peter Heydon.

Women of the Gilded Age Lecture

The Richest Woman in America: Hetty Green in the Gilded Age

Thursday, February 1, 2018, 6:00 p.m.

Free for Sustaining level Members and above

$10 for Individual and Family Members

$20 for non-members

Guided by the shrewd money-men in her family, Hetty Green grew up to be one of the most powerful financiers in American history. A businesswoman who transcended the expectations set upon women of her time, she was interested in a diverse array of money-making opportunities such as real estate, railroads, and financial loans. Even as a married woman and mother of two, Hetty Green remained financially independent and amassed a great fortune. Despite yellow journalism's obsession with the portrayal of her quirky and meager lifestyle, her legacy is not wholly as The Witch of Wall Street but rather as the fiercely independent, Richest Woman in America. The 2018 Women of the Gilded Age lecture is sponsored by Susan Stautberg and the Hilton West Palm Beach.

Whitehall Lecture Series:

Heroes of the Homefront: World War I and the Faces of Wartime America

All lectures begin at 3:00 p.m.

Free for Members at the Sustaining level and above

$10 for Individual and Family Members

$28 per lecture for non-members

$125 for the five-lecture series
Includes Museum admission

The 33rd Annual Whitehall Lecture Series, Heroes of the Homefront: World War I and the Faces of Wartime America, will commemorate the roles of American soldiers and supporters during World War I. Each lecture promises to provide a unique range of historical perspectives, including those of political and military leadership, the Doughboys on the front lines, minority infantrymen conscripted to battle, and women on the homefront and abroad. Heroes of the Homefront will evoke a new appreciation for America's participation in World War I and address the ways in which American Culture was changed forever because of it.

When possible, a book signing with the speaker follows each lecture. Online visitors can experience each lecture via a free webcast at www.flaglermuseum.us where visitors may listen live, see the presentation and ask the lecturer questions.

1. February 11, 2018 – March 1917: On the Brink of War and Revolution
by Will Englund
2. February 18, 2018 – The Last of the Doughboys: The Forgotten Generation and Their Forgotten War by Richard Rubin
3. February 25, 2018 – World War I: The American Soldier Experience
by Dr. Jennifer Keene
4. March 4, 2018 – The Second Line of Defense: American Women & World War I
by Dr. Lynn Dumenil
5. March 11, 2018 – Uncle Sam Wants You: World War I and the Making of the Modern American Citizen by Dr. Christopher Capozzola

The Whitehall Lecture Series is sponsored by the Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation, the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, Hilton West Palm Beach, the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, and The Palm Beach Post.

Tickets $35

The 13th Annual Bluegrass in the Pavilion concert will feature co-headliners Blue Highway and the Gibson Brothers for an unforgettable afternoon of bluegrass music set in the impeccable Flagler Kenan Pavilion. Two-time IBMA Entertainers of the Year, the Gibson Brothers are revered for their harmonies that have been described as both traditional and revelatory. Blue Highway is highly-regarded in the genre of bluegrass music for their inimitable sound.

All proceeds benefit the Museum's education programs for children.

Whitehall Society – Mixing It Up cocktail party

Friday, April 27, 2018, 6:30 p.m.

$40 for Members

$50 for non-members

Tickets may be purchased online or by telephone

Each Season, the Whitehall Society presents a cocktail party to celebrate the history and tradition of cocktails in America. Mixing It Up is traditionally hosted in Palm Beach's only Cocoanut Grove, adjacent to the South Porch and Flagler Kenan Pavilion. The venue features a canopy of twinkling lights, themed décor, and floral arrangements. Guests are treated to a variety of inspired hors d'oeuvres paired with special recipe cocktails popular during America's Gilded Age.

The Whitehall Society of the Flagler Museum is the next generation of Museum supporters. This engaging group supports the Museum's mission and educational programming through a variety of innovative activities throughout the year.
