Flagler Museum Announces 2014 / 2015 Season Programs

PALM BEACH, FL - The Flagler Museum continues to provide the community with unique experiences and learning opportunities during the 2014/2015 Season. Please include the following events and dates in your calendars.

Fall Exhibition:

Kiss of the Oceans: The Meeting of the Atlantic and the Pacific

October 14, 2014 - January 4, 2015

Included with Museum admission

In commemoration of the centennial of its opening in 1914, Kiss of the Oceans will illustrate the fascinating story of the construction of the Panama Canal, one of the world's great technological achievements. Through artifacts, photographs, and documents, the exhibition will tell the Canal's story from sixteenth-century explorers to nineteenth-century debates, the failed French canal project of the 1880s, the massive American takeover in 1904, and finally the first official transit on August 15, 1914.

The Fall Exhibition is sponsored by PNC Wealth Management, the Enterprise Holdings Foundation, the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.

Christmas Tree Lighting

December 7, 2014

3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Free with Museum admission

The 16-foot tall Grand Hall Christmas Tree, with its historically accurate trimmings, is the center of Whitehall's holiday celebrations. The Tree Lighting festivities include holiday music played on Whitehall's original 1,249-pipe Odell organ and the 1902 Steinway art-case grand piano. This annual performance is the only opportunity visitors have to hear both of Whitehall's majestic instruments. Special choir performances, refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus complete the afternoon's activities. The event culminates with Henry Flagler's youngest descendants lighting the Grand Hall Christmas Tree. Each visitor will receive a box of Animal Crackers, a treat invented in the Gilded Age. The iconic circus box with a string was originally designed as a Christmas Tree ornament.

The Christmas Tree Lighting is sponsored by the Cultural Council of Palm Beach County, the Palm Beach County Board of County Commissioners, the Tourist Development Council, and the State of Florida Division of Cultural Affairs.
